First Bank Opens New Location and Receives the Building a Better Beaufort County Award

The Washington-Beaufort County Chamber of Commerce recently held a ribbon cutting ceremony for First Bank to celebrate the grand opening of their new location at 639 W. 15th Street in Washington. First Bank was also awarded the Building a Better Beaufort County Award by the Chamber Ambassadors. The Building a Better Beaufort County Award is given to a business for their efforts in beautifying the community and making a positive economic impact. To learn more about First Bank, visit them at their new location or call (252)946-4171.

Power Luncheon Recap

The Chamber would like to thank everyone who attended the November and December Power Luncheons. In November, the Washington Police Department and Beaufort County Sheriff's Department gave an update on the community and tips for staying safe over the holidays. The December Power Luncheon speaker was Joe Stewart, Executive Director of the Free Enterprise Foundation. He spoke on the 2016 election; what it meant for North Carolina and what we can expect as a result of the elections. Speakers for the 2017 Power Luncheons will be announced soon. If you have a suggestion for a topic or specific speaker, we welcome your input!

The Washington-Beaufort County Chamber of Commerce recently held a ribbon cutting ceremony for Carryout by Chrislyn, located at 128 E. 2nd Street in Washington. Carryout by Chrislyn is Original Washington's foodery focused on home made fresh food. Come in and shop for prepared food or order carry out meals or catering. ## Bright Futures Update

Bright Futures Beaufort County continues to meet basic needs of students in Beaufort County Schools. We are thankful for all the businesses, churches and individuals who help make this possible. Site Councils are very active at some of our schools. The Ed Tech Center is one of those schools where Bright Future's site council continues to do good work. We have had several speakers come speak to the students this fall on financial literacy, soft skills and job interviews and unlocking your potential regardless of circumstances. If you are interested in learning more or becoming involved with Bright Futures please call the Chamber at 946-9168 or email Robin at rmckeithan@wbcchamber.com
